

2018 Sponsorship Overview

Thank you for your interest in the Triangle Healthcare Executives' Forum of NC (THEF), your local chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE), a professional society representing over 36,000 members worldwide. THEF is the premier professional association for healthcare executives in the Triangle and Eastern North Carolina. Each year we are able to provide our 600 members and the broader NC healthcare community the opportunity to connect and grow as professionals via a wide variety of educational events and networking opportunities.

OUR MISSION: Triangle Healthcare Executives' Forum (THEF) is an affiliated chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE). The mission is to be the professional membership society for healthcare executives in the region; to meet the members' professional, educational, and leadership needs; and through these aspects, to advance healthcare management excellence.

OUR VISION: Triangle Healthcare Executives' Forum will be the leader in providing timely continuing education and networking opportunities to facilitate professional development for healthcare executives in the region.

Sponsoring our Local Chapter

Sponsorship contributions play a critical role in supporting the ability of our chapter to meet our organization's mission and achieve the following objectives:

- Be the professional membership society for healthcare executives in NC
- Increase communication amongst professionals involved in the management of HC organizations

- Further professional knowledge through familiarization with local, regional, and national healthcare activities and trends
- Provide networking opportunities and continuing education credits toward FACHE
- Serve as a resource which assists affiliates in board certification in healthcare management, advancement, and recertification

More specifically, our sponsors play a critical role in supporting our ability to produce worthwhile educational events, secure expert panelists that draw a wide audience, coordinate highly attended local networking events and support our growing body of student affiliates.

THEF Membership & Events

Each year, THEF offers a variety of events that provide valuable educational material and networking opportunities for healthcare professionals in the area. Our local Chapter also provides mentorship opportunities, continuing education credits, and a job bank specifically for the region. Furthermore, through THEF's affiliation with ACHE, our educational and networking events provide healthcare executives with continuing education hours at venues located throughout the area that directly apply toward advancement, recertification, and board certification in healthcare management.

As a sponsor, THEF guarantees you and / or your organization access to a minimum of four education and networking events each year. In the 2017 calendar year, THEF hosted 4 educational events and 3 networking events. Last year's educational events had on average over 80 participants at each event ranging in titles from Manager, Director, CIO, COO, CEO, MD, Medical Director, and JD, to name a few. Our attendance has continued to grow year over year, with a projected increase of 15% in 2018. Our members stem from a variety of healthcare industries including hospital administration, biotechnology, health insurance, physician practices and pharmaceutical sectors.
